Enjoy the Sweet Taste of Chocolate in Historic Bethlehem with Authentic Chocolate-Making Demonstrations!

Bethlehem, PA—Chocolate lovers: Enjoy the “Sweet Taste of History” at one of Historic Bethlehem Museums & Sites’ upcoming chocolate events!

Uncover chocolate's bittersweet past and the delicious role it plays in American history through an engaging workshop that highlights where chocolate originated and how it was made in colonial times. Activities include a hands-on, chocolate-making demonstration using traditional kitchen equipment and the opportunity to enjoy a sweet cup of hot chocolate, made the colonial way with historically authentic American Heritage Chocolate.

The chocolate themed events will be held through May 2013 and include:

- Valentine’s Day programs where attendees are encouraged to “fall in love” with chocolate. Great for couples looking for a fun activity around a special time of year.
- Spring programs during which Mrs. Goundie will create a traditional chocolate Easter treat.
- A Mother’s Day program during which guests will make a beautiful chocolate rose. A nice activity for children of all ages and their mothers.

All “Sweet Taste of History” events will be held at the 1810 Goundie House at 505 Main Street in Historic Bethlehem. Dates and times are as follows:

- February 9, 12-4pm
- February 10, 12-4pm
- February 14, 4-8pm
- March 23, 12-4pm
- March 24, 12-4pm
- May 12, 12-4pm

“Sweet Taste of History” events are free to the public. Donations appreciated. All guests who donate $5 or more will receive a complimentary package of American Heritage Chocolate, authentic handcrafted colonial chocolates from the Historic Division of MARS.

Historic Bethlehem Museums and Sites is a not-for-profit institution that brings to life three centuries of American history. Historic Bethlehem tells the story of a small town of great influence, home to some of our nation’s earliest settlers, America’s first municipal water pumping system, and one of the world’s greatest industrial companies. Historic Bethlehem is located in Eastern Pennsylvania, only a 1.5 hour drive from Philadelphia to the North and 2 hours west of New York City. Historic Bethlehem is an Affiliate of the Smithsonian Institution and a National Historic Landmark district. For more information please call 610-691-6055 or visit www.historicbethlehem.org.
