SAFE, FALL FAMILY FUN
The 7th Annual Apple Days & Market To Go
Presented by Historic Bethlehem Museums & Sites

BETHLEHEM, PA, September, 2020- Historic Bethlehem Museums & Sites (HBMS) invites you to fall in love with everything apple at the 7th Annual Apple Days & Market To Go. This year, the event will continue with a new safe visitor format offering the Market To Go with pre-order and safe drive-thru pickup Monday, September 21 through Friday, September 25, 12pm-6pm and Apple Days onsite visits Saturday and Sunday, September 26 and 27, 10am-4pm at Burnside Plantation, 1461 Schoenersville Road, Bethlehem, PA 18018.

Pre-ordering for the Market To Go is available now through the brand new HBMS online store. Safe drive-thru pickup is available September 21-25, between 12pm and 6pm. Specific date and time can be chosen during checkout. Available for pre-order are fan favorites including apple pie, apple strudel, apple dumplings, apple donuts, and other gourmet apple items.

On the weekend of September 26 and 27, 10am to 4pm, bring the family out to visit our “farm-in-the-city” at Burnside Plantation for Apple Days. Pre-purchased timed tickets and masks are required for COVID-19 Green Phase Guidelines. Admission for a 90-minute time slot is $3 for adults and $3 for children, including a take home craft and activity bag for the kids.

Weekend visitors will be able to browse and shop items from favorite regional crafters, gourmet food vendors, favorite apple pie, strudel, dumplings, apple cider, apple salsa, and ready-to-plant perennials to take home. Local acoustic musicians will be playing throughout the weekend for visitors to enjoy.

Get your history fix too – timed tours of the barns and grounds will be offered, including history of the Apple Orchard that hosts 12 antique American Apple trees, including 4 Roxbury Russet Trees that date back to 1635, the oldest American Apple tree still being grown today. Demonstrations of the colonial cider press will be going on throughout the day as well.

Those who have been sharpening up their baking skills over the past few months are invited to participate in the Apple Dessert Culinary Contest, judged by The Young Chefs Academy - Allentown. Both age groups will be judged on Saturday, September 26 with Kids taking place at 10:30 am and Adults at 11:00 am. Details for entry can be found on the HBMS website.

Check the daily schedule on the HBMS website for more details closer to the event.
