COMEDY AT THE MILL

Historic Bethlehem Museums & Sites and White Elephant Entertainment Duo Bring Comedy to the Colonial Industrial Quarter

BETHLEHEM, PA, December 2019 – Historic Bethlehem Museums & Sites (HBMS) and White Elephant Entertainment Duo (WEED) have teamed up for an evening of comedy sure to go down in the history books. On Friday, January 17, Kris Fried and Andy Malafarina will make you laugh, with music before the show by Leah Marie Fuls. Presented as part of Design After Dark, HBMS’ after-hours programming series, Comedy at the Mill will be sure to pick you up out of your post-holiday slump.

Born in Allentown, Kris Fried is a standup comedian and writer who splits his time between the Lehigh Valley and New York. He has written material for Saturday Night Live Weekend Update, Attack of the Show!, and WWE.com. He is a regular performer at the Comedy Cellar in New York and a panelist on The Greg Gutfield Show.

Also hailing from Allentown, Andy Malafarina is a rising comedy star on the Lehigh Valley scene. He has opened for national acts such as Nick di Paolo, Luis J Gomez, and Raymond the Amish Comic. Andy also hosts What? (the podcast, not the chant), a weekly wrestling news podcast.

Leah Marie Fuls is a Lehigh Valley-based singer-songwriter and guitar player. Audiences connect with her strong and sultry voice and Americana style. Her first Pop single “Collision” won Best Pop/Contemporary Song of the 2018 in The Josie Music Awards, the largest award show in the world for independent artists. Leah has been nominated in multiple categories for the Lehigh Valley Music Awards and is currently touring the tri-state area.

Doors for the event will open at 5:30pm, with the comedy show beginning at 6:30pm. Tickets are $20 for future Historic Bethlehem Museums & Sites members, $15 for current members and include two drinks. The Luckenbach Mill is located at 459 Old York Road. Proceeds from this event help Historic Bethlehem Museums & Sites to maintain 20 historic landmarks in Bethlehem, Pennsylvania.

Historic Bethlehem Museums & Sites is a not-for-profit institution that brings to life three centuries of American history. Historic Bethlehem tells the story of a small town of great influence, home to some of our nation’s early settlers, to the first pumped municipal water system in the American colonies, and to one of the world’s greatest industrial companies. Historic Bethlehem is located in eastern Pennsylvania, only an hour drive north from Philadelphia and 2 hours west of New York City. Historic Bethlehem is an Affiliate of the Smithsonian Institution, part of a National Historic Landmark District, and a designated site on the US Tentative List.
